

BCjobnetwork.com is a real-time job matching service that brings job hunters and employers together.

When you place a job advertisement in any Black Press community newspaper, it will automatically be uploaded to BCjobnetwork.com

The skills and preferences of our rapidly expanding database of candidates will be cross referenced to match with your job's requirements saving you valuable time searching for the perfect candidate.

As an advertiser you can:

- Run a display ad in our help wanted sections and get listed on BCjobnetwork.com automatically.
- Benefit from our state-of-the-art applicant tracking system.
- View a list of pre-qualified applicants rated by how well they matched your job requirements.
- Have more time to concentrate on the relevant candidates
- See a list of candidates who match at least 50% of your job's requirements.
- Send emails to the candidates who applied for your job.
- Upgrade to a business profile so potential candidates can find out more about your company.
- Remain confidential if necessary by using a Box Number.
